President's Message

President's Message

Hello Members:

We are getting a good start this year, we had another great turnout for breakfast at the Athens Cafe, twenty two members attended. Good food, good service and most of all, good fellowship.

Sue Capps and Nancy Wittner did a fine job in arranging a tour of the Athens Historical Museum for us. I, as many of you, recognized most of the artifacts and remembered some of the good times and the hard work. I remember the Gauntt building from the sixties and seventies as Mr. Gauntt used to call on us at the "Countryside Grocery" in Payne Springs to sell us groceries and ..... Mr. Gauntt also delivered the Dallas Times Herald in the Mabank area during those years.

Thanks Sue and Nancy, looking forward to driving down the road looking at the daffodils, bluebonnets, painted brush flowers and the overhanging trees once again.

Most of our members have paid their dues by now, we still have a few that have not. Be sure and get your dues in for as you know the funds are a necessary part of our existence.

We have several members on the roster that have not attended a meeting in some time for one reason or another. Lets make an effort to call them and invite them back again.

Thank you Ola for bringing a guest to the last meeting, Robert had some very interesting things to say about the relationship of our two countries from a first hand experience.

The "Poor Boy Tour" is nearly upon us, so those of you who are still lingering, get it gear before its to late.

See you next Tuesday, same time.... same place.

Bob

Wednesday Breakfast

(But on Tuesday again!)

Tuesday, February 19 members of the club met at the Athens Cafe for our monthly Wednesday Breakfast. Yes, on Tuesday again! 22 folks turned out and there were several A's driven in spite of the very chilly weather.

After a good breakfast and abundant fellowship, we all drove just a few blocks to visit the Athens Historical Museum, located in the old Faulk-Gauntt Building, just a half block north of the Henderson County Courthouse. Thanks to Nancy Wittner for the suggestion for us to visit the Athens museum after breakfast! It was thoroughly enjoyed by all...
